Utrecht, the Netherlands, 19 February 2025

90% of customers agree: investment insurance agreement final

The agreement that a.s.r. reached in November 2023 with five interest groups on a final settlement for affiliated customers with investment insurance policies from Aegon and a.s.r. is final. A sufficient number of customers have accepted a personal offer. This means that all procedures of these five interest groups against Aegon and a.s.r. will be stopped and that a.s.r. will proceed with the implementation of an individual arrangement for special cases and for unaffiliated customers that have not previously received compensation.

At the end of 2023, a.s.r. reached an agreement with the interest groups Consumentenclaim, Woekerpolis.nl, Woekerpolisproces, Wakkerpolis, and the Consumentenbond for affiliated customers with an investment insurance policy from Aegon and a.s.r. At least 90% of the affiliated customers had to agree to a personal offer in order to finalise the agreement. This has been achieved.

All procedures of the interest groups against Aegon and a.s.r. will be stopped with the reaching of this final agreement. It has also been agreed that no new legal cases will be initiated. Now that the agreement has become final, a.s.r. will proceed with the implementation of an individual arrangement for special cases and for unaffiliated customers that have not previously received compensation.

Customers looking for more information about the agreement and the individual arrangement from a.s.r. can visit: www.asr.nl/overeenkomst. Customers can register until 1 June, 2025 after which their applications will be assessed.
